

LBCCFA's Monday Morning Message- 29 April 2019

Did You Know?

- In today's Rep. Council Spotlight:

- Name: Doug Raphael

- Department: Communications
 - Year arrived at LBCC: "I have been teaching at LBCC since Fall 2014."
 - Favorite topic to teach: "I really enjoy teaching persuasive speaking in my Comm 10 course. It is always exciting to see students speak about topics that they care about."
 - Department brag: "The Communication Studies department is getting ready to host our annual Student Showcase at the PCC campus on May 17, at 6:30pm, in Dyer Hall. Students will display their talents delivering informative, persuasive, and impromptu speeches. We will also have oral interpretation and debate performances. All students, staff, faculty, administrators, and community members are welcome to attend."
 - Free-Time: "I enjoy mountain and desert activities like camping, dirt bike riding, wakeboarding, and snowboarding."
- As a CTA member, you can apply for CTA-endorsed Disability and Life Insurance from Standard Insurance Company, even if you are covered by a different insurance company. You can switch coverage without answering health questions from April 1 through May 31. Click here for more information.
 - On May 18th, the California Community College Association (CCA) is hosting The Force Awakens 2019 conference. It's a one-day conference devoted to bringing awareness to equity and social justice issues facing our community college faculty. Click here to learn more and register.

- Don't forget that annual Flex reports are due to Faculty Professional Development this Wednesday, May 1st! Submit your forms via campus mail (code Y8), in person (office T1021), or by email (kconchada@lbcc.edu).
- Our own Janét Hund was honored with a "We Honor Ours" (WHO) award at this year's spring CCA Conference in Orange County. Congrats on the well-deserved recognition, Janét!

This Week in Labor History:

On April 28th, 1970, U.S. Congress voted to create the Occupational Health and Safety Administration (OSHA), and President Nixon signed the legislation the following December. Since then, the organization has been tasked with establishing and enforcing basic workplace safety standards. For more on the history of OSHA, visit the Department of Labor website.

Respectfully,

Your LBCCFA Executive Board
